WIFE OF ORCHARD AGAINST HAYWOOD

To Corroborate Husband's Confession at Miner's Murder Trial.

STEVE ADAMS ALSO ON LIST

Sheriff Busy Summoning Farmers as Talesmen-Panel of One Hundred to Be Called.

BOISE, IDAHO, May 12.-Mrs. Harry Orchard, wife of the man whose confession to the murder of ex-Governor Steunenberg resulted in charges of murder being brought against Charles H. Moyer and William D. Haywood, of the Western Federation of Miners, is to be a witness for the prosecution at the trial of Haywood

Mrs. Orchard is on the list of witnesses under another name. She is a woman of superior ability, and has known much of her husband's associations and operations. It is expected that she will be able to tell a strong story in corroboration of her husband's Mt. Zion Church, Fulton, Saturday deposition; in fact, it is now believed that the State has a much stronger case than was at first supposed.

Steve Adams and his wife also are to be witnesses. Adams s the the publication of The Baptist Record, man who made a sweeping confession of which Rev. Z. D. Lewis is editor. implicating the miners' leaders, and then repudlated It. According to his statement, he was up the enterprise. He was tried for murder in Shoshone county, the jury disagreeing by a verdict of seven for acquittal to five for conviction. It is now reported that he and his wife will tell a full story to release Adams of the murder charge hanging over

Some weeks after Adams had made his confession last year his wife made a statement, giving many important points not covered by him. She was present at many meetings which her husband had with federation officers, she said, and she knew many details of crimes in which he was alleged to have been employed.

Acting Secretary, Kerwin, of the Western Federation, was subpoensed to-day as a witness for the State. He had come here to consult with the prisoners regarding the affairs of the union, and the subpoena was served on the train after he had left Boise.

Sheriff Hodgin and seven deputies continued to serve the farmers of Ada county with notices to appear next Monday afternoon to be examined as to possible jurors. Altogether, 100 men will be in attendance Morday afternoon for jury duty. Witnesses for the prosecution have been notified to be in court next Friday morning, by which time it is expected that the jury will been completed. court next Friday morning, by which time it is expected that the jury will have been completed.

NEGRO BAPTISTS IN AN UPROAR

Lively Meeting Held Yesterday, at Mt. Zion Church, in Fulton.

"PET SCHEMES" CHARGED

The convention of colored preachers of the General Baptist Association held their fourth days' amid considerable confusion. In fact, the session which was an executive meeting, lasted far into the afternoon. and at times was in an uproar over The session was becoming lively, and there were charges of "pet schemes" and countercharges of "cut and dried sent to murder Steunenberg, but gave prearrangements." The body finally got close enough together to agree to got close enough together to agree to adjourn.

Rev. Binga, of Manchester, opposed most vigorously the sale of whiskey in the colored department at Jamestown. It was the opinion of some of the leading delegates that should the sale of liquor be allowed in that quarter, some irresponsible negroes would become intoxicated and create untold trouble on the grounds, which would trouble on the grounds, which would reflect on the colored people's depart-Rev. C. C. Boone, the returned missionary from Africa, spoke to the body on his work. Rev. Boone has been laboring under the auspices of the American Baptist Mission Union for many years. He will attend the Southern Baptist Convention (white) here, and give some exhibition of his work and the ways of the cannibals in and the ways of the cannibals in Africa, He speaks the language of Rogan Hughston was the first to answer, "I, for one, because it is the finest porfession in the world!" he exclaimed.

"What could be more splendld than to portray the big, fine emotions and thoughts of life in such a way that people are stirred to the depths, or rather to the heights, just through your power? What other art in the world lets you come so closely in contact with your public, so that you may make them laugh and cry and feel and think with you? It's the under side of acting that I love, the interpretation of the big deep things that no other work lets you deal in so truthfully, so intimately! It was that which drew me to the stage."

"How about you, Water: assed Allen, turning to Greene.
"I got interested in theatricals from acting in college plays," said Greene. "I made good in those, and it occurred to me that it was a fine profession and worth going into. So when a good chance appeared, I took the plunge. I've never regretted it, and love my work, certainly as much, and I think more, than work actes."
